

Serving at Church (Greeter) Social Narrative

I am going to serve at church as a greeter. This means I am going to welcome people when they come to church.

When I serve, I might put on a name tag. Then someone will tell me where to go.

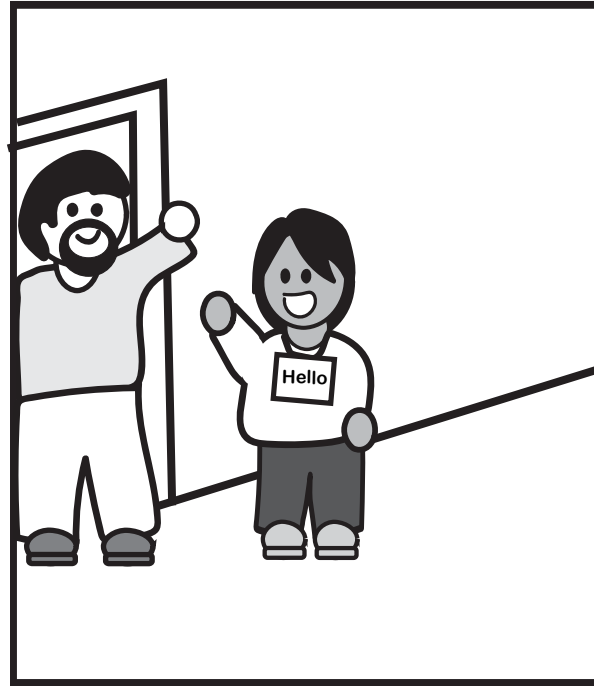

I might greet people by holding a welcoming sign.

Or I might hand things out.

Or I might just wave or smile at everyone who comes in.

Then, someone will tell me when it's time for greeting to be over.
